Viking Dedication

Mr. Frank Calhoun spends many hours preparing for and teaching his chemistry and biology classes. This is not, however, the only way in which he contributes to the school. He is an avid follower of all student activities from basketball games to bricklaying contests. More than that, he is on the students' side. Nowhere can one find an individual who is more willing to give of himself and his time to help each and every student, whether in his class or not. It is for his devotion to the students that the staff of the Viking '77 dedicate their efforts to Mr. Frank Calhoun.

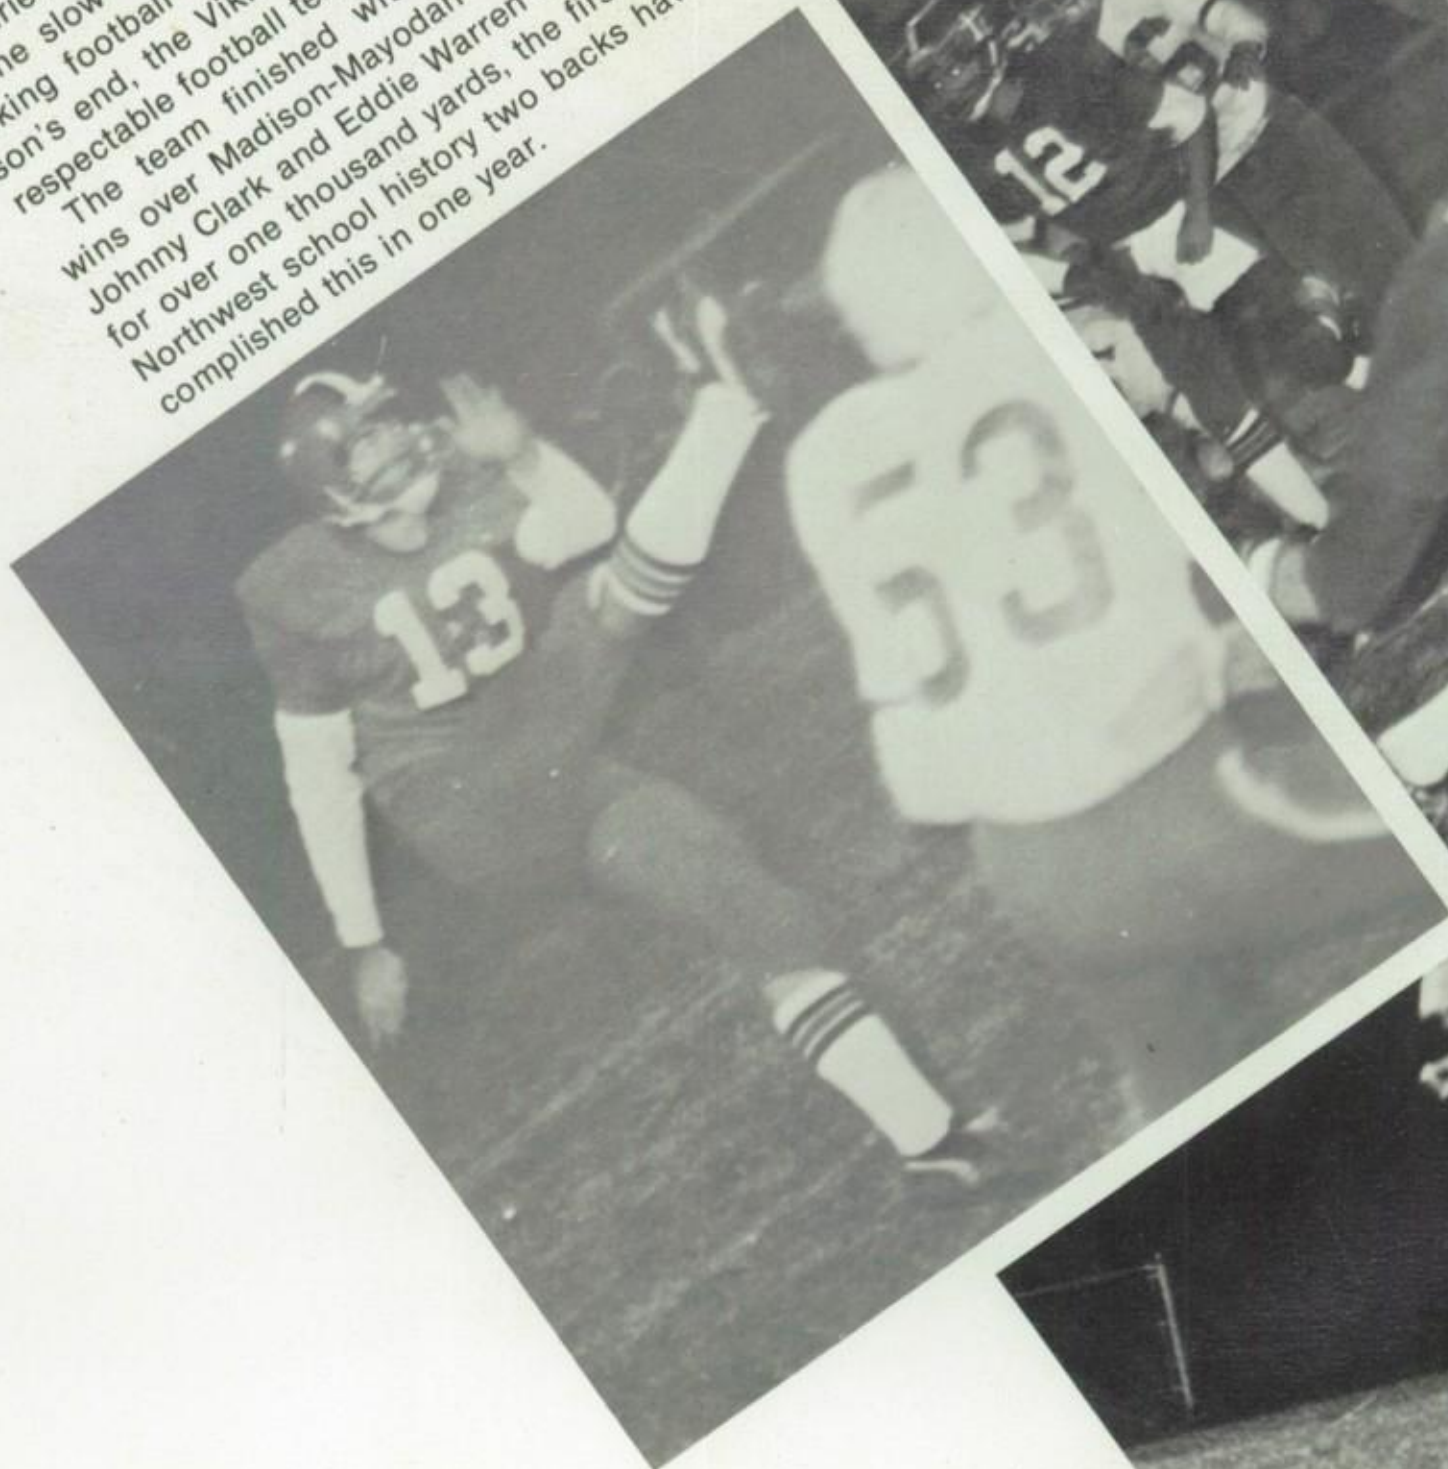

Clark and Warren Lead Viking Attack

Injuries and inexperience were key factors in the slow start experienced by this year's Viking football squad. However, by the season's end, the Vikings had developed into a respectable football team.

The team finished with two conference wins over Madison-Mayodan and Northeast. Johnny Clark and Eddie Warren each rushed for over one thousand yards, the first time in Northwest school history two backs have accomplished this in one year.

Vikings Win Homecoming Contest

The Viking football season was highlighted by a 36-16 homecoming win over Madison-Mayodan and a late season win over rival, Northeast. The team sported three unanimous choices on the all-conference and all-country teams. They are running backs, Johnny Clark and Eddie Warren, and offensive tackle, Glenn Young.

Vikings Finish Third In Conference

The '77 Cross-Country team finished third in the mid-state conference with a predominantly underclassman team. Alan Clayton and Doug Penley were the only seniors on the squad. Coach Sandy Gann named Clayton and junior, Dale Smith as the most consistent runners for the Vikings.

The sectional meet was held at Duke University on November 5. Seven Vikings Clayton, Penley, Smith, Kevin Haynes, Ernie Hiatt, Gus Searcy, and Max Williams qualified for the competition. Although the Vikings captured no titles in the meet, they made a good showing.

Volleyball Team Gains Confidence

The '77 Volleyball team had a slow start, winning only one of their first four games. As the season progressed, they gained confidence and more skill. The Vikettes defeated all of the conference teams except Western and Southeast who finished 10-4 and 14-0 respectively. The quality that Northwest was missing was confidence. Mrs. Valand believes, "You have to know and feel that you are the best if you want to be the best." This is the attitude she intends to stress in the future.

Two outstanding Vikettes were picked for the all-conference team. These players were co-captains, Kathy McDaniel and Darelene Bull. Another outstanding player, Lisa Hill, was awarded an honorable mention.

Vikings Finish Second in Tourney

This year's team is the most inexperienced in the history of Northwest. Only one experienced letterman returned, Eugene Rayle.

Composed of four seniors, four juniors, and five sophomores, the squad sported the most sophomores of any of Gann's former teams.

Leadership was provided by seniors, Alan Clayton, Johnny Peeden, Eugene Rayle, and Mike Shelton. The high scoring position was held by Rayle, followed by sophomores, Gus Searcy and Mark Teal; and junior, Jeff Blackburn. Sophomores Tommy Farrington and David Westmoreland led the team in rebounding.

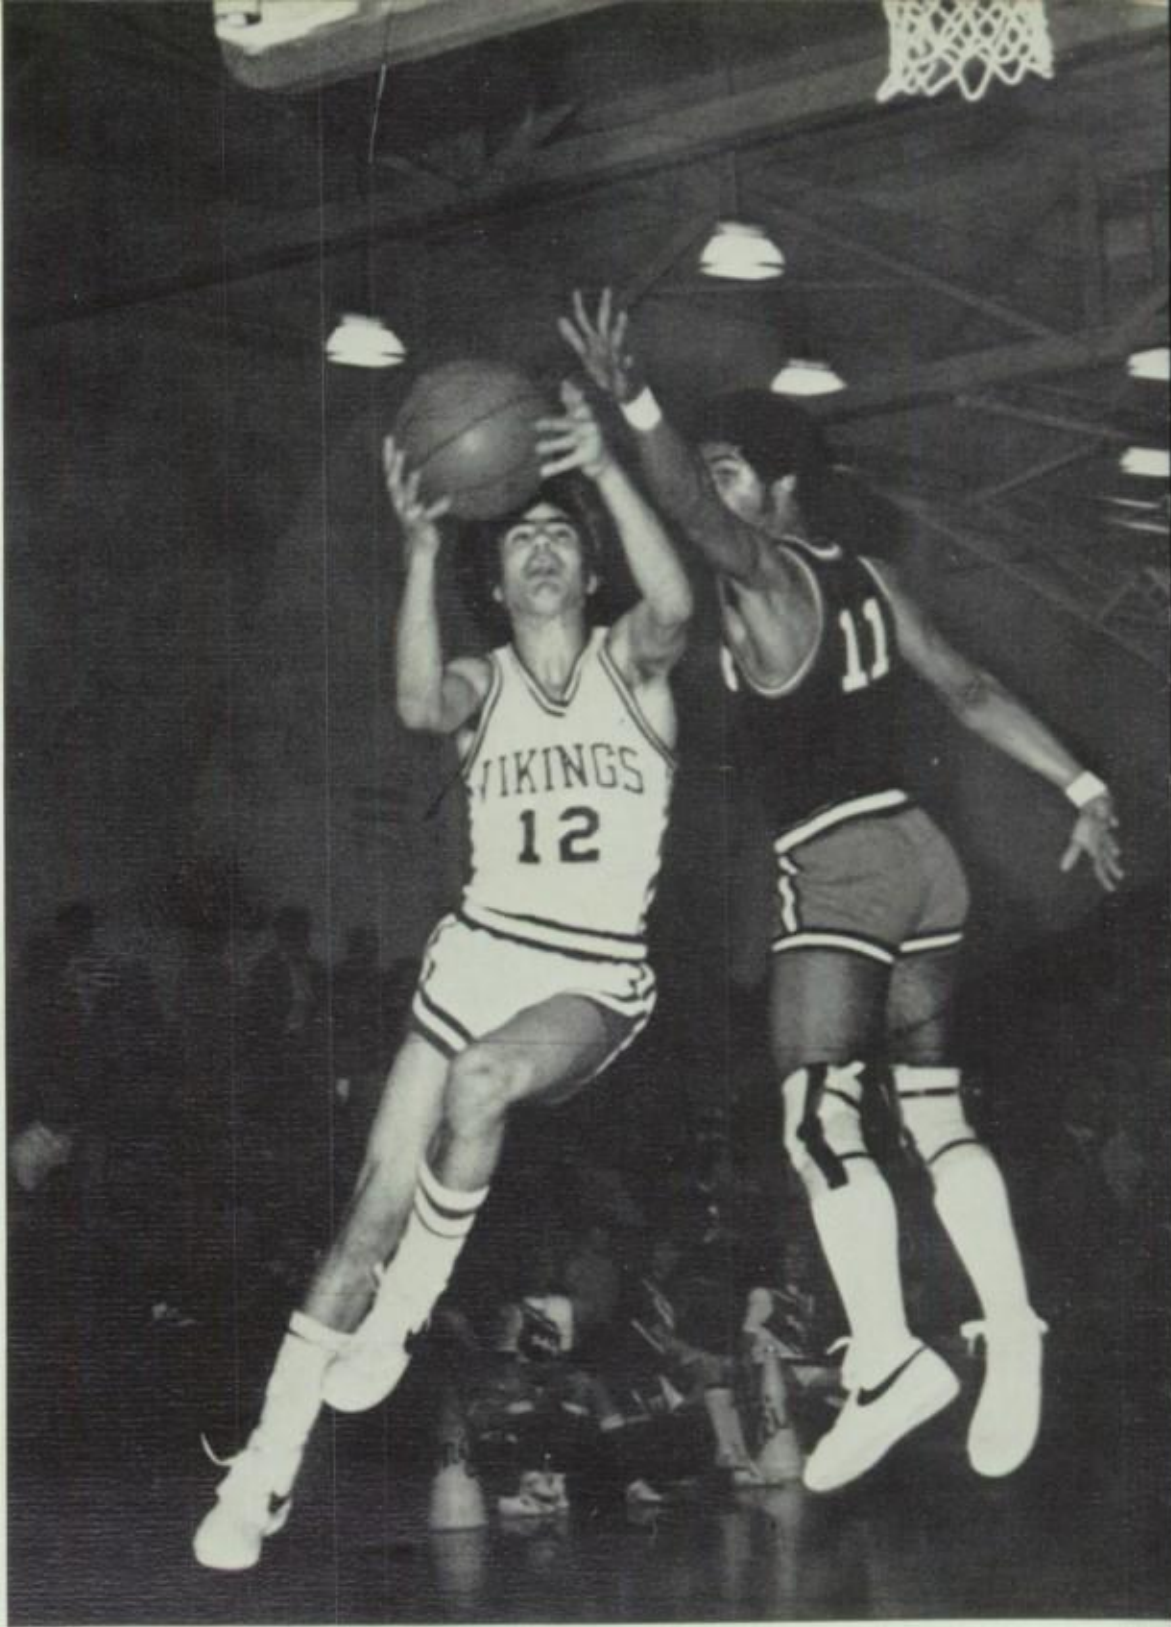

The Vikings played well in the Northwest Invitation Tournament in which they were the runner-ups.

Northwest Basketball as Seen by Many

Girls Win Christmas Tourney

The Northwest girls' team is young but experienced with nine returning lettermen. After starting off slow the girls became definite conference title contenders. During the Christmas Holidays, the girls captured the championship title of the holiday tournament held at Eastern Guilford. After Christmas, the girls continued to improve.

The girls started the conference season strong, losing only one of their first five games to unbeaten Southeast. The team had hopes of capturing the title again before the year was out.

Coach Valand was quoted as saying, "This year's team was a great team, not because of skill but because of the fine girls that made the team."

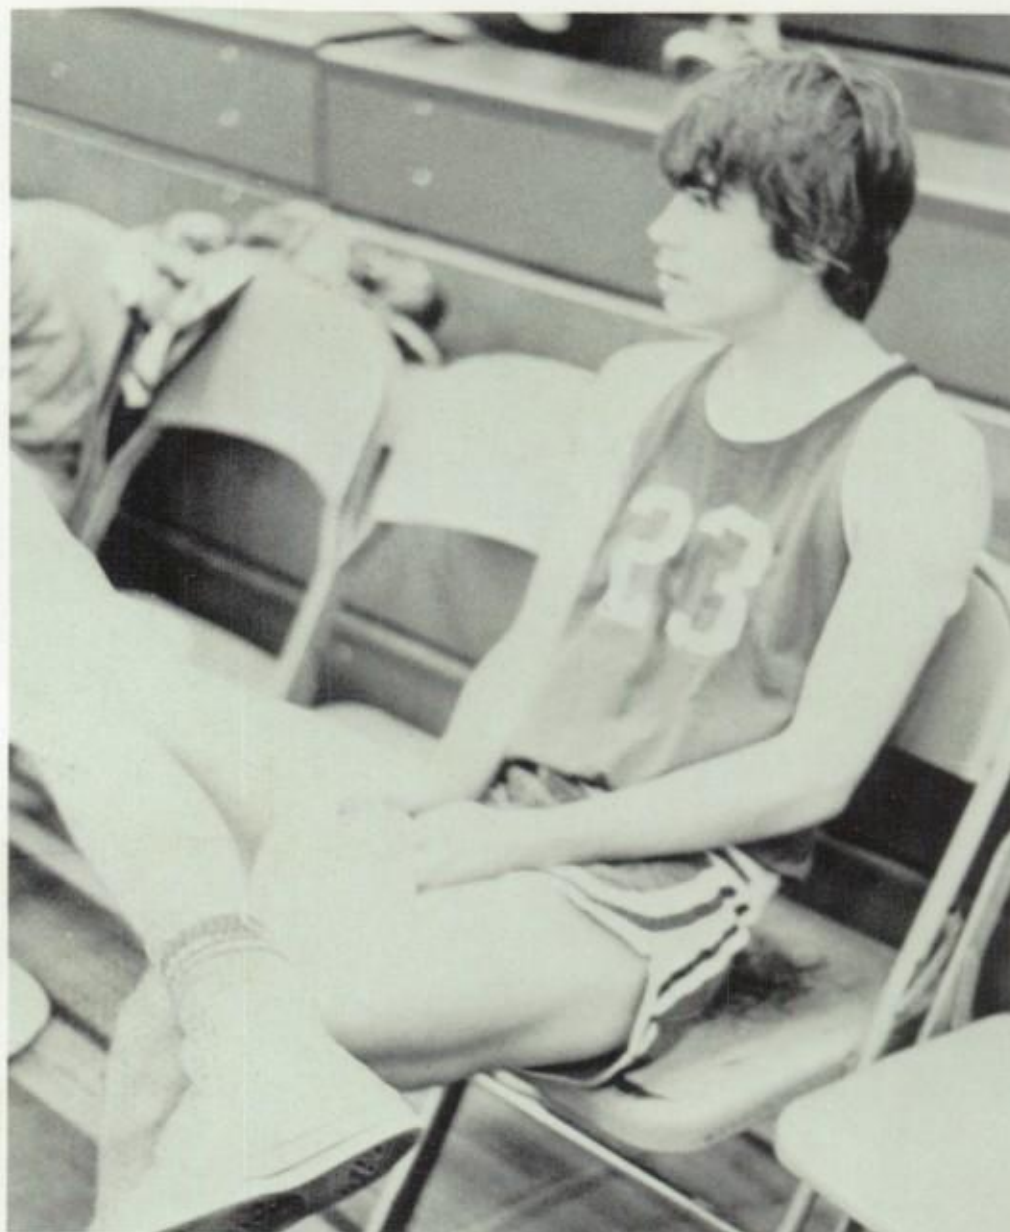

The Girl's Varsity basketball team includes Coach Valand, Sherrie Evans, Lisa Hill, Vickie Layton, Arlisa Lowe, Marcia Bull, Regina Siddle, Cheryl Alley, Managers, Darlene Newsome and Sue Baker, Teresa Earles, Tammy Duncan, Darlene Bull, Kathy McDaniel, Nan Hannah, and Jeanette McBride.

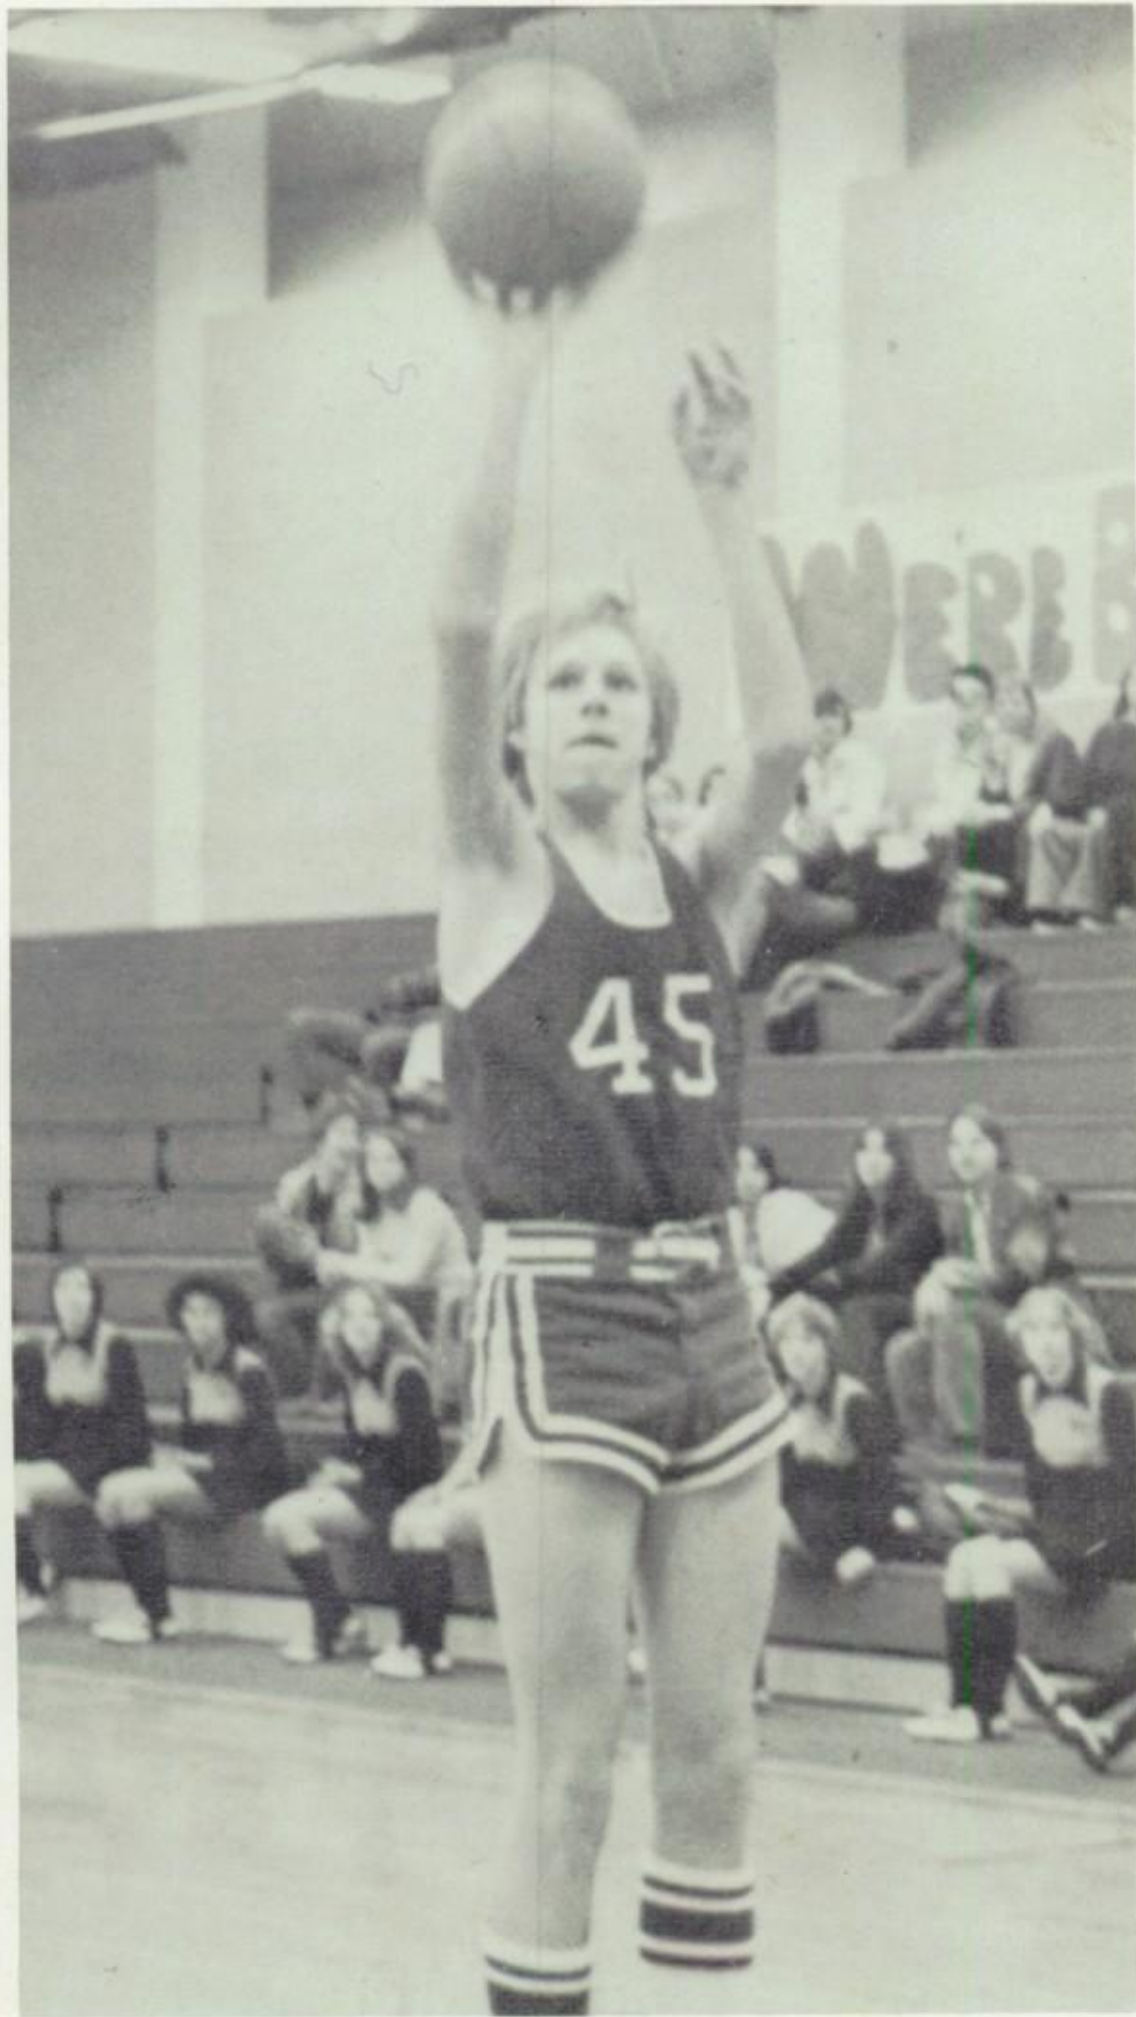

Stephen Hill Leads Junior Varsity

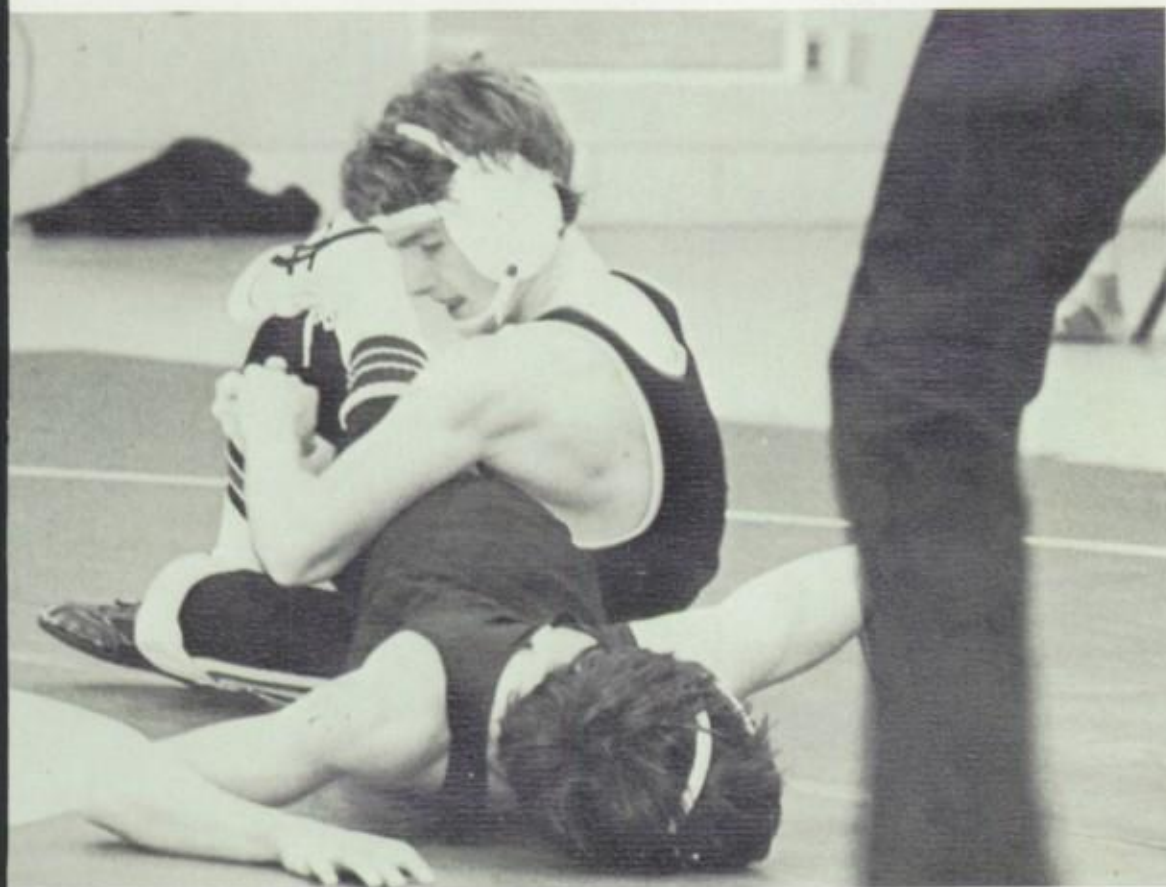

The J. V. Basketball team, despite its small size, shows much improvement and enthusiasm toward varsity play. Coached by Bob Yow, the team was led by Stephen Hill, Kevin Haynes, and Mark Hodges. Eddie Smith also contributed much to team effort.

J. V. Team members include Jim Beeson, David Dixon, Tim Frazier, Stephen Hill, Kevin Haynes, Phillip Shields, Mark Hodges, and Eddie Smith.

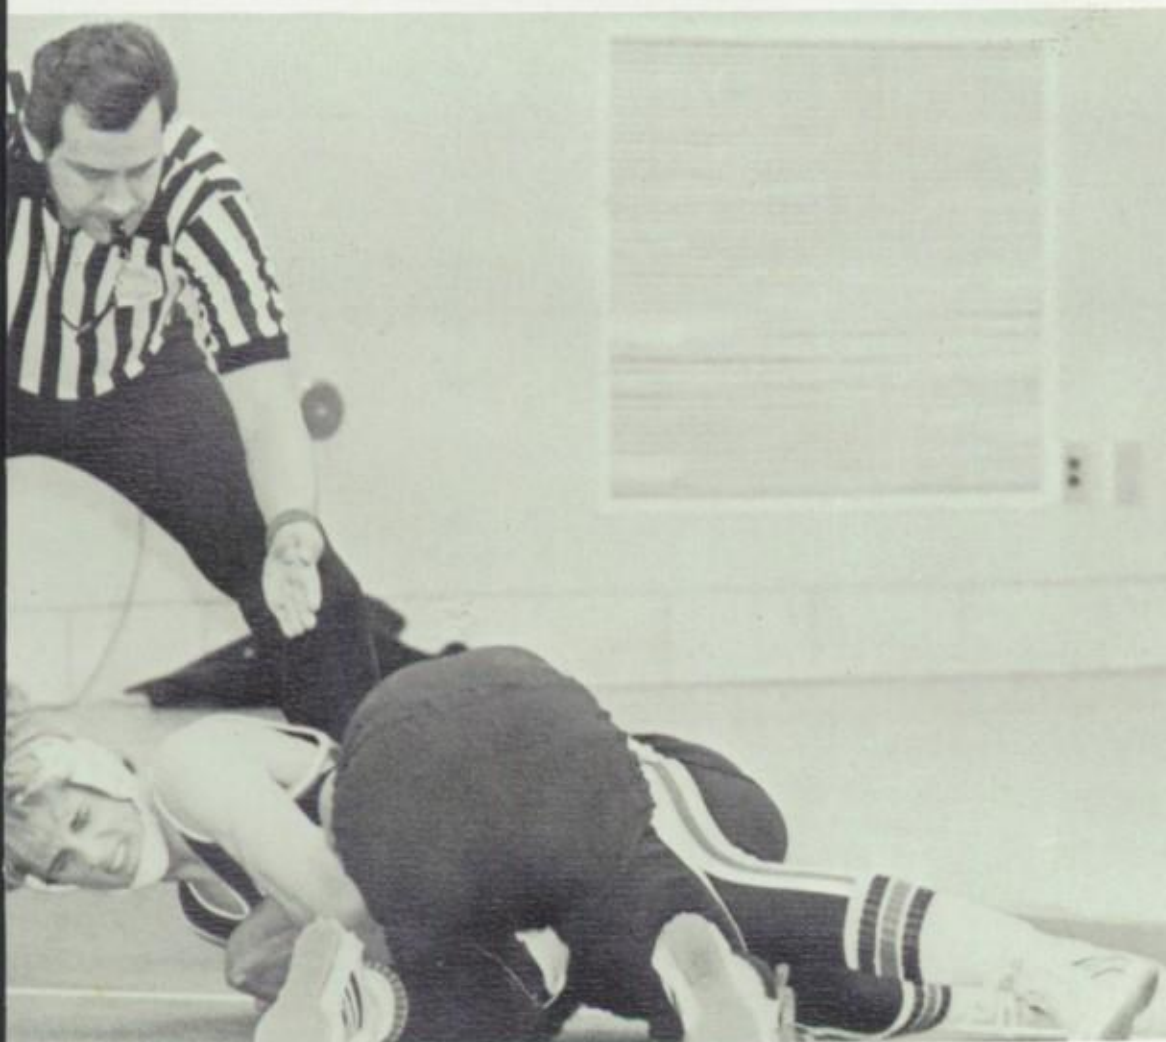

Wrestlers Led By Simmons and Young

The '76-'77 Viking Wrestlers sported a young team with six or seven sophomores starting each match. Coach Readinger said, "To be so young, the team has done a fine job."

Senior co-captains, Tommy Simmons and Glen Young were the backbone of the team. Other stand-outs were Bobby Poole, Junior, and Kim Danaho, Sophomore.

Shelton, Young Win Conference Tourney

The Northwest Wrestling Team sported many fine individual performances this year. Glen Young captured the championship in his weight division in the conference tournament. Mark Shelton also won in his division as well as being named Most Outstanding Wrestler in the Mid-State Conference Tournament. Runners-up in their divisions were Bobby Poole, Ronnie Manns, Kim Danaho, and Tommy Simmons.

During the East Central Sectionals Tom Simmons placed third, Glen Young finished fourth, and Kim Danaho won his division. The win entitled Danaho to a trip to the State Tournament where he represented Northwest well.

Top: Glen Young and Tommy Simmons, both seniors were elected co-captains of the '76-'77 wrestling team. Above: Steve Wilson works for a pin.

The '77 Viking Track team, coached by Mr. Bowman is led by juniors, Dan Wood and Robin Holliday. With only one senior, Rodney Caudle, the team is comprised mainly of talented juniors who pile into cars every afternoon to go to practice at the Sandy Ridge Golf Course. Mr. Bowman is expecting a good season.

Baseball Team Led By Six Seniors

The '77 Viking Baseball team expects a good season behind the talent and experience of nine returning lettermen: seniors, Johnny Peeden, Mike Shelton, Eugene Rayle, Mark Howerton, Johnny Clark, and Alan Willard; and juniors, Donnie Pegg, Mark Beeson, and Dale Williard, Enthusiasm and young talent will be added by six first year players.

Rebuilding Year For Track Team

This year's Viking Track Team can be classified as inexperienced. Sixteen of the twenty members are on the squad for the first time.

The four returning lettermen are Calvin Johnson, Thomas Morrison, Greg Needham, and Steve Wilson. Johnson is expected to be a team leader having had much experience. With little experience, but much enthusiasm, there are several first members with much potential.

Hard Work Promises Good Season

Tired muscles, aching feet, and cramps signal the beginning of the '77 Girls' Track season. Mrs. Valand, with the help of Ms. Roll, and student teacher, Ms. Glover, is pushing the girls hard for an excellent track season. With a good ratio of classes, the track team sports seven seniors, seven juniors, and seven sophomores.

Cheerleaders Boost School Spirit

The '77 Viking cheerleaders turned into money-makers this year by having bake sales to help pay for their uniforms. They were held this past summer at the Community Super Market in Summerfield and Talbert's BiRite in Stokesdale to participate in a Bicentennial parade.

During the school year the cheerleaders sponsored a spirit week for homecoming and many booster activities for basketball as well as raising spirit at the ball games. Heading up the activities was chief, Dinita James, who acted as hostess for the Christmas tournament held at Northwest. Dinita was also nominated for the All-Star Selections U.S.A. in cheerleading.

This year's cheerleaders supported the Viking wrestlers along with the football and basketball teams. Their faces were to be seen and their voices to be heard at almost all Northwest athletic events.

J.V.'s Cheer at Home Games

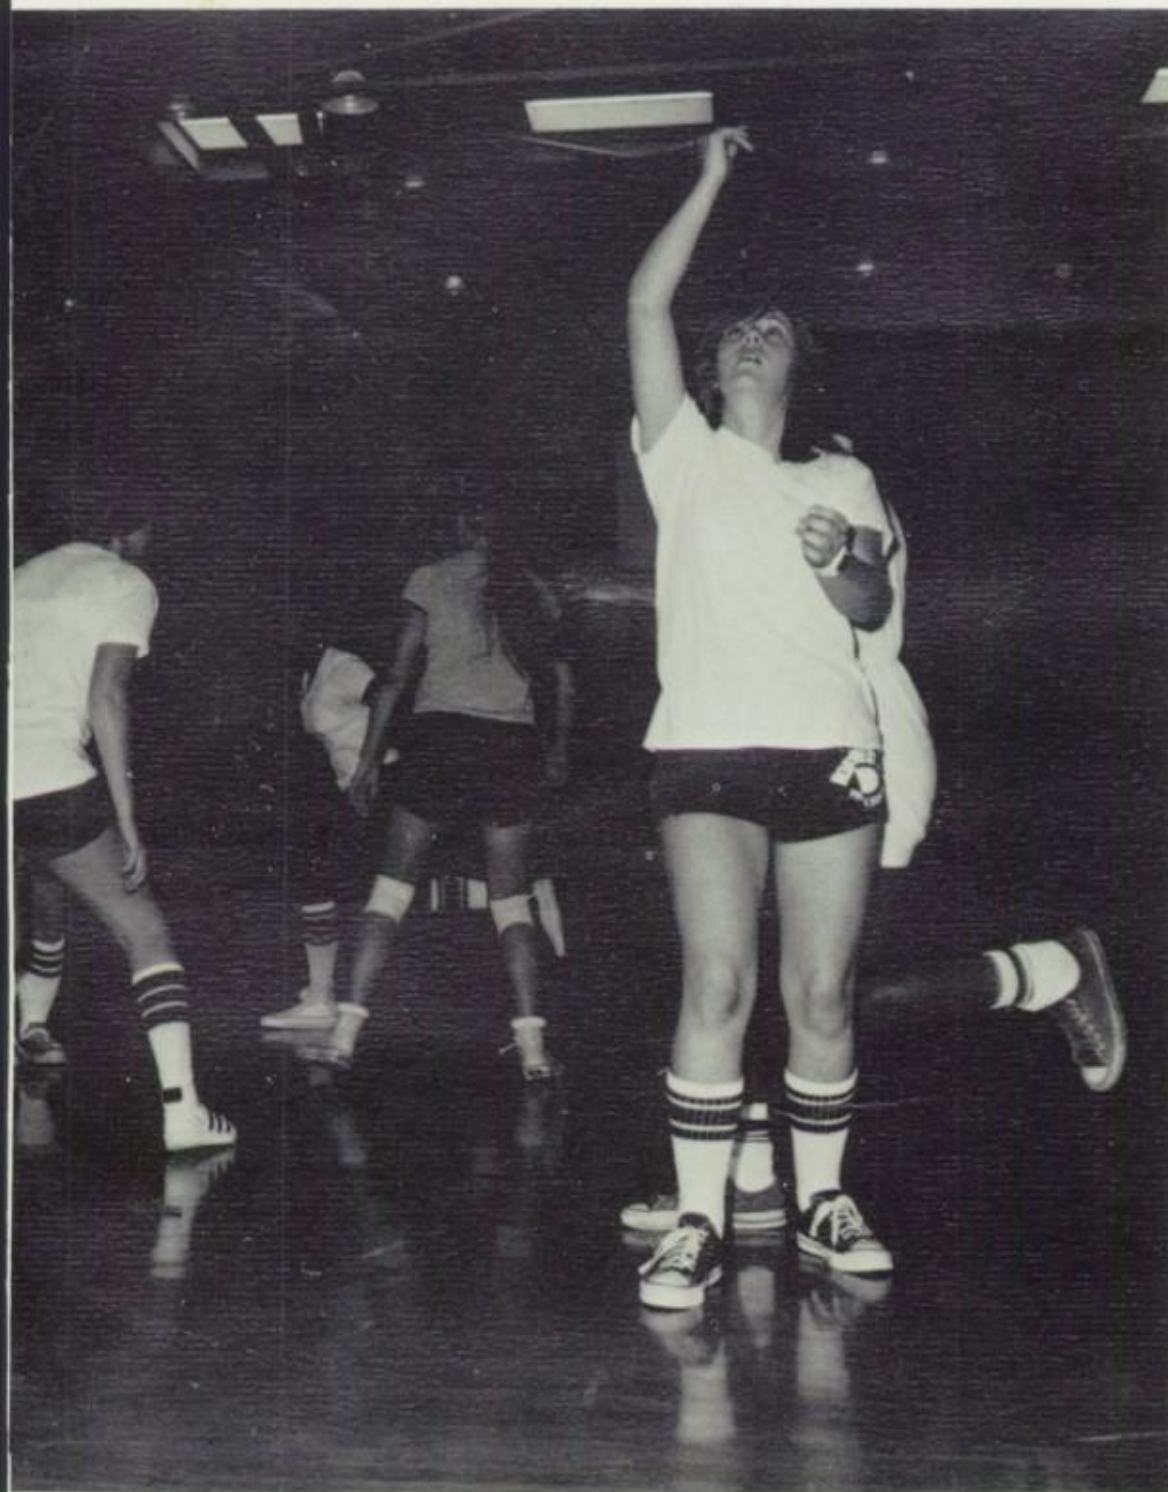

The J.V. Cheerleaders of '76-'77 showed much enthusiasm before, during, and after the boys' basketball games. Posters were designed by the cheerleaders to increase support for the team.

Led by chief, Debbie McCuiston and co-chief, Kim Tuggle; the J.V.'s cheered at all the home games. While a school rule keeps them from attending the away games as cheerleaders, the girls were usually seen as supporting spectators at these events.

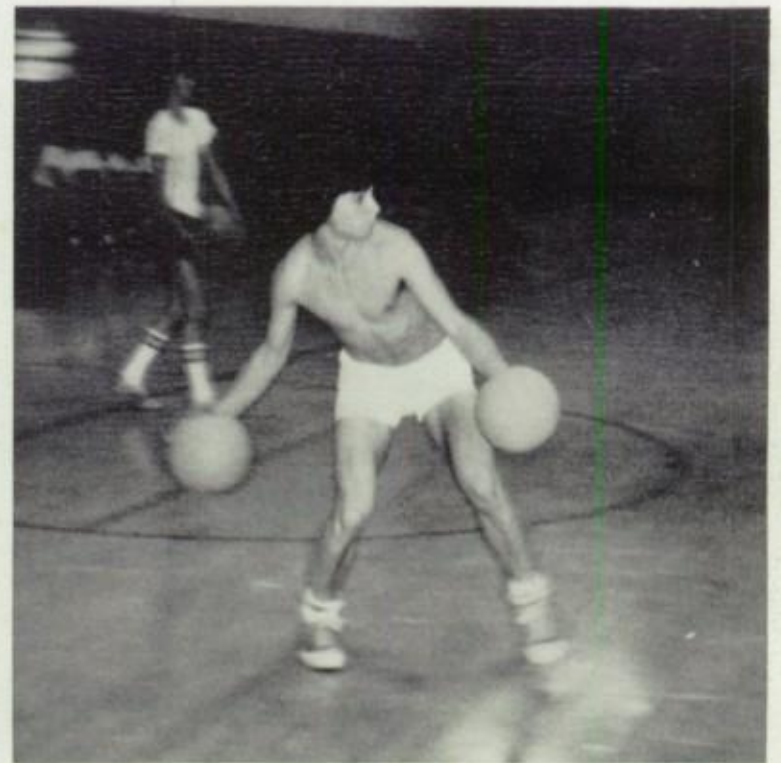

J.V. Cheerleaders include Gina Leviner, Danita Ford, Jane Morgan, Christy Joyce, Kim Tuggle, Teresa Robertson, Karen King, Debbie McCuiston, and Robin Holmes.

Eugene Rayle

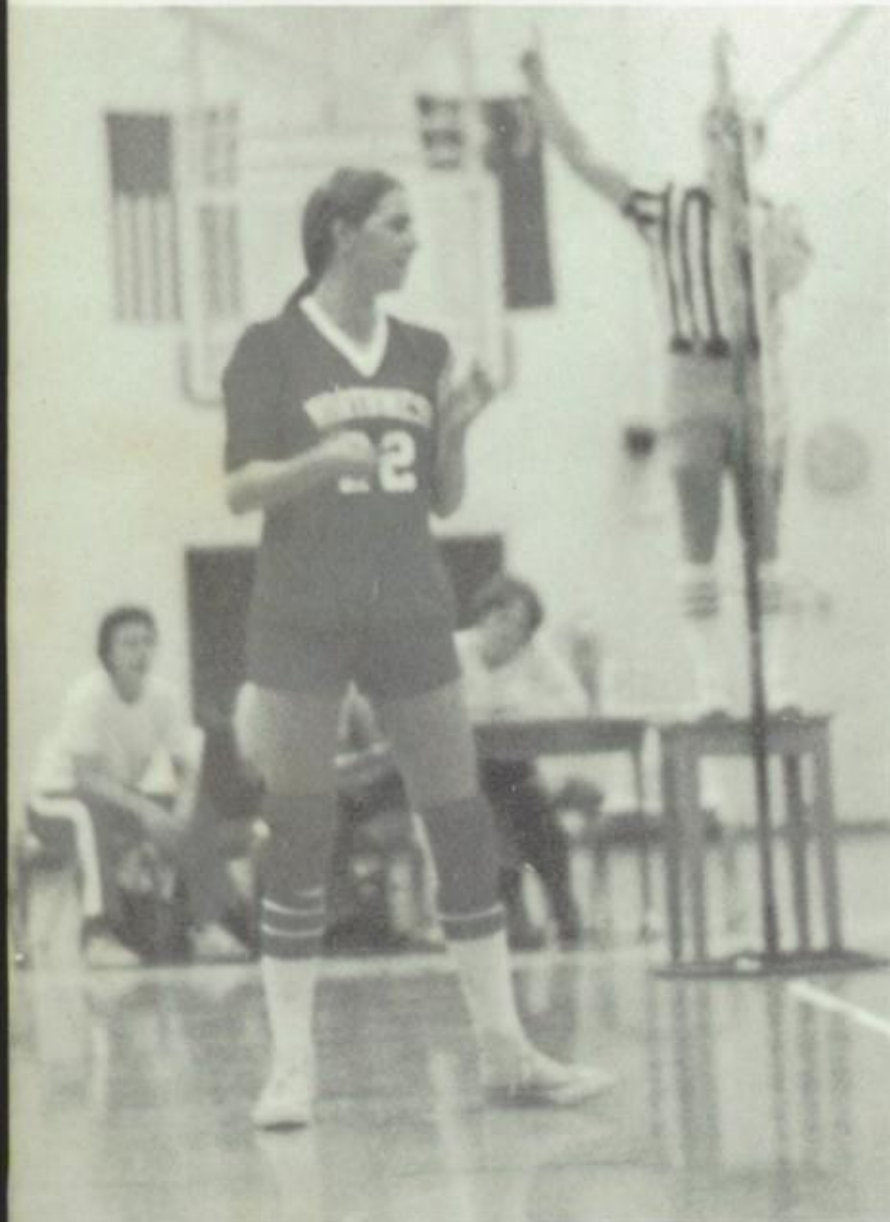

DAR Good Citizen

Eugene Rayle was chosen by the seniors and faculty to receive the DAR Good Citizen Award, and he is the first male to hold this honor. DAR is a nationwide scholarship program sponsored by Daughters of the American Revolution. There are individual chapters which sponsor the local competitors.

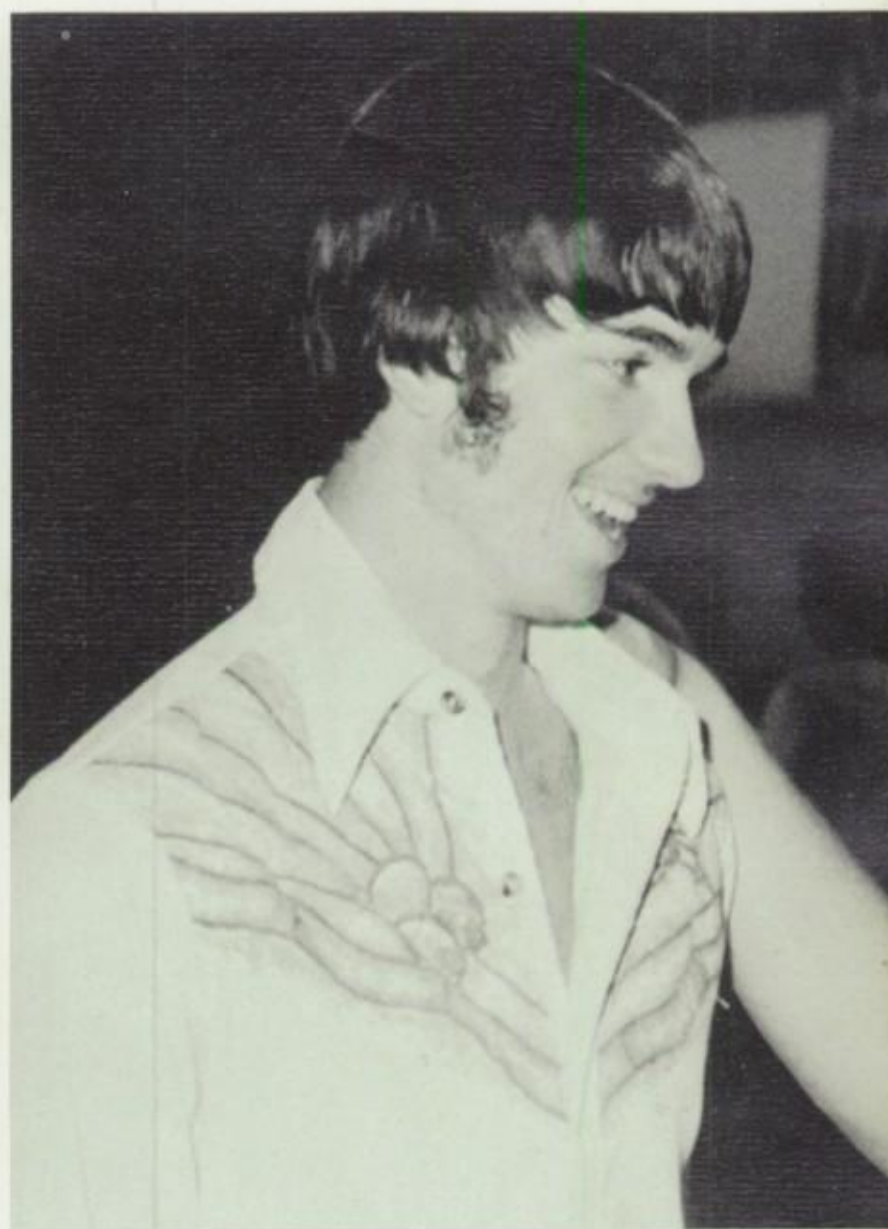

Mr. and Ms. Viking

Eugene Rayle and Darlene Bull were elected Mr. and Ms. Viking by the Senior Class. This award is given annually to the male and female students who best exemplify the characteristics of leadership, personality, and accomplishment.

Classmates Elect Eugene Rayle Outstanding Senior

The Senior Class of Northwest shows their admiration for Larry Eugene Rayle, Jr. by electing him Outstanding Senior, DAR representative, Mr. Viking, and Class President during his junior and senior years. Eugene lives up to their expectations by being a member of the National Honor Society, where he serves as Vice-President and High IQ bowl participant, and a Junior Marshall, in addition to membership in Annual Staff, International Club, and "N" Club.

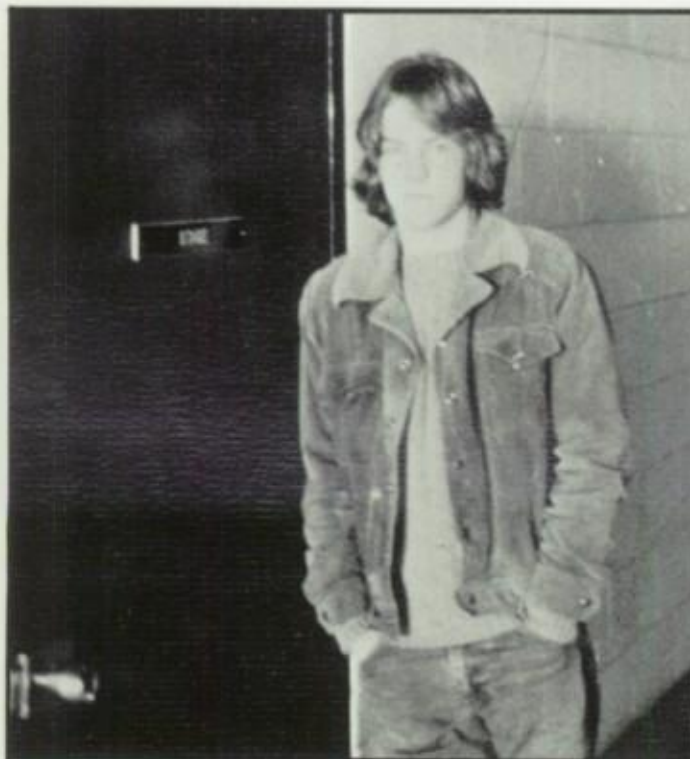

Seniors Choose Top Ten

Respected among fellow students, Melissa Darlene Bull has been a letterman in basketball, volleyball, and track for three years. Co-captain of the basketball and volleyball teams her junior year, she was selected as an All-Conference Volleyball and Basketball Player. A successful athlete, her junior year Darlene set school records in the high jump and low hurdles, and was a member of the mile-relay team. Her spirit and enthusiasm made her popular with fellow athletes, who voted her President of the "N" Club for two years.

As a guidance assistant, member of the International Club, National Honor Society, and "N" Club, Sonja Dawn Winfree's time is limited. She does however, find much time to devote to her main interest, horseback riding. Sonja is an instructor in both Western and English riding, and a member of the American Quarter Horse Association. Before becoming so involved with the horse world, Sonja was chosen Chief and Most Valuable Cheerleader of the 1976 Squad.

David Towne Knox's love and skill for drama consume much of his after-school time. He played the hero in Perils of Priscilla and took an extra-curricular theater course at UNC-G. President of both the Drama and International Clubs. David also serves as a Senator on the Student Council. David is also a member of the National Honor Society and High IQ Team. Another of his interests, music, led him to serve as a guitarist for "Anonymous" during his sophomore and junior years.

A well-rounded student both athletically and socially, Shelia Neavon King helps promote pride in her school. Shelia is an active member of the Library Club. She was Vice-President and Secretary of the "N" Club during her junior and senior years. As a sophomore, Shelia was voted Most Valuable Track Team Member. Along with serving long hours as a cheerleader and member of the chorus, Shelia represented the Class of '77 as a Homecoming Court Attendant in both the eleventh and twelfth grades.

Dinita LeAnne James is Chief Varsity Cheerleader, Editor of the Yearbook, Chief Junior Marshall. High IQ Team Captain, and a member of the National Honor Society, "N" Club, International Club, Civinettes, and the Drama Club. Dinita was a finalist in the Greensboro Junior Miss Pageant and a National Merit Scholarship finalist for her PSAT scores. Her sophomore year she ran track, played volleyball, and attended Governor's School.

For three years, Johnny Eugene Clark has been a member of the Varsity Football and Baseball Teams. His senior year Johnny's football abilities gained him the honors of All-Conference Running Back, All-County Defensive Cornerback, and Team-Captain. Johnny's easy-going manner and friendliness have been a welcome addition to the International Club, the "N" Club, and the Civitans.

Always striving to boost school spirit, the smile of Barbara Rose Keys can be seen at many school events. An active participant in the International Club, "N" Club, and National Honor Society, Bab is the senior class Secretary-Treasurer. She has served as a Junior Marshall, a member of the Yearbook Staff, and Student Council, as a sophomore and junior senator. A cheerleader for three years, she was presented the Viking Award her junior year.

BOYS

With her quiet ways and big smile, Teresa Dawn Smith serves unselfishly as a member of the International Club, Civinettes, and Yearbook Staff. Fellow club members in the national Honor Society acknowledged her many scholastic accomplishments by electing her President. A guidance assistant and a member of the High IQ Team, her insights contributed a great deal to the school. Teresa also had the honor of being Chief Junior Marshall.

Known for the pipe he smokes, Joe Ray Hawkins is President of the Junior Civitans and a member of the Drafting Club. Drafting is an area in which Joe Ray has received much deserved recognition. During his junior year, Joe Ray served as President of the Vica: Aviation-Electronics Club and placed first at the Vica: Drafting Skills Contest. Joe Ray's hard work was instrumental in the drive for a new School sign, to be financed jointly by the Civitans and Civinettes. Joe Ray also sold over $300 worth of ads for Viking '77.

GIRLS

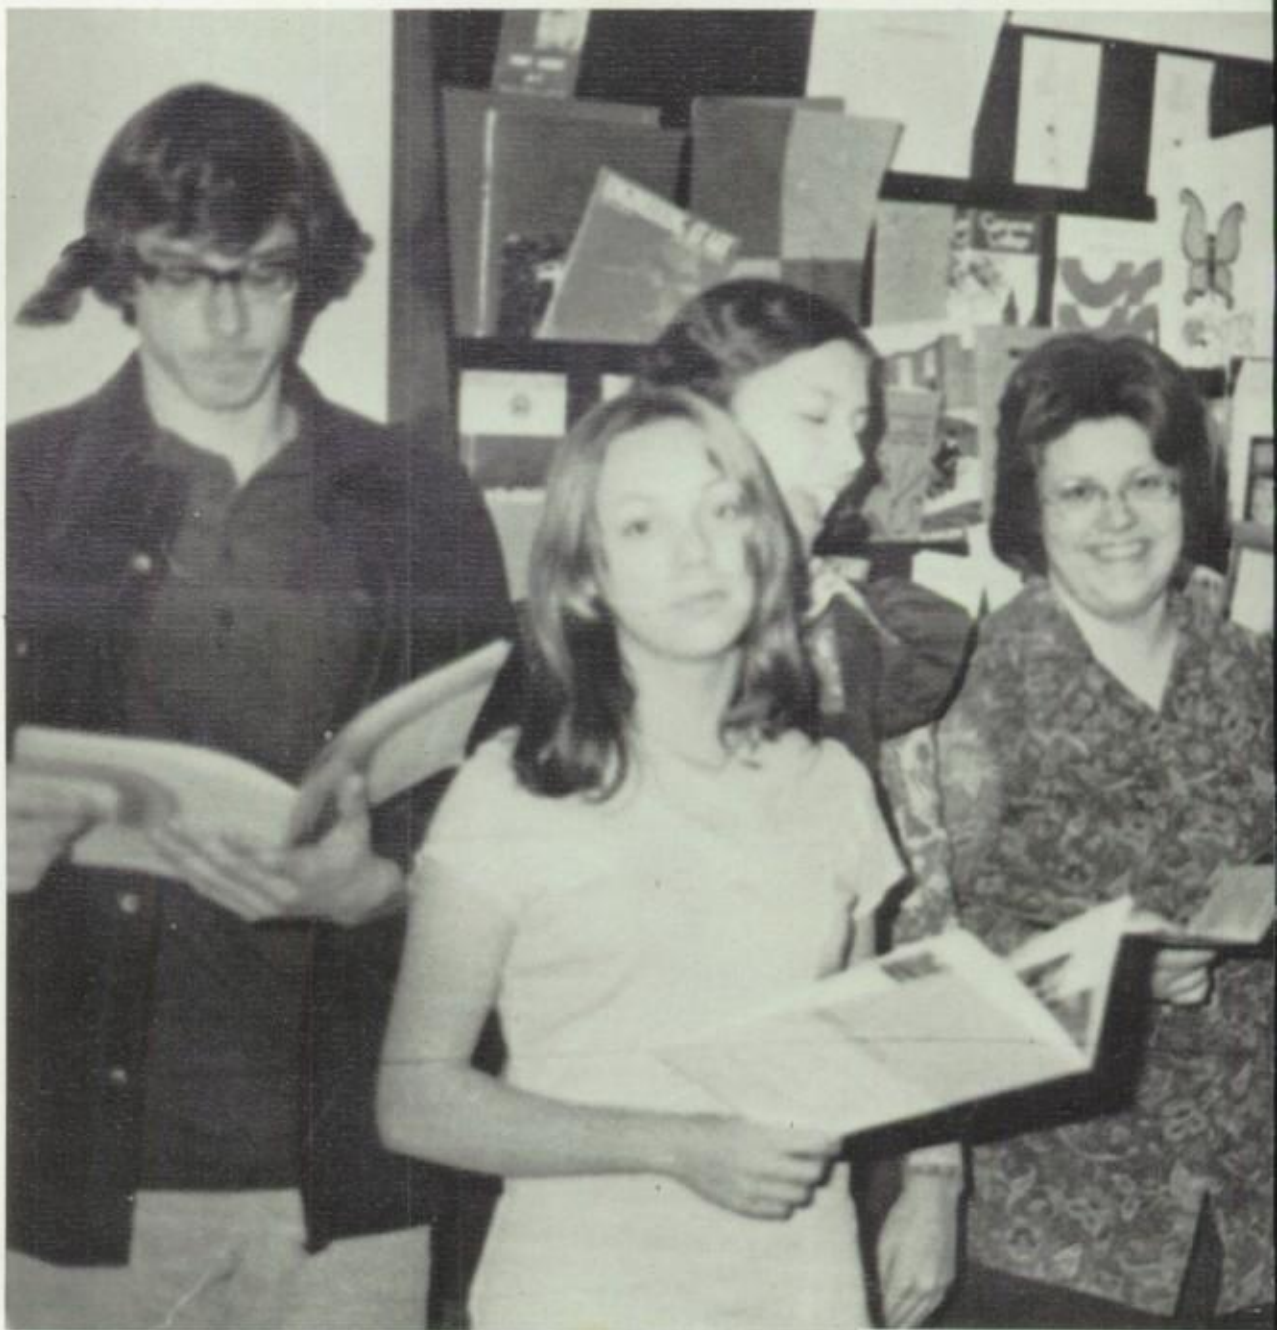

As President of the Student Body, Richard Alan Clayton handles the interests of his fellow students. Besides being Senior Class Vice-President, Alan also holds membership in the International Club and offices in the "N" Club and Junior Civitan Club. His sports interests extend into several categories, including basketball, track, and cross-country. Often expressing zany ideas, Alan's contributions uplift the spirit of the Yearbook Staff on which he serves.

Special Awards

Northwest seniors have received several academic honors this year. Dinita James, upper left, received the first Morehead Scholarship Award in the school's history, as well as an Achievement Award in Writing given by the National Council of Teachers of English. Teresa Smith, lower right, was alternate for the Aubrey Lee Brooks Scholarship. Teresa and Dinita, along with David Knox, upper right, were all National Merit Commended Students and Morehead Nominees. Dinita advanced to the finals in the Merit competitions. Dinita and Teresa are valedictorian and salutorian of the graduating class.

Six underclassmen also brought scholastic honors to Northwest this year by being nominated for Governor's School. Shelagh Calahan and Kim Snider are academic nominees. Grady Cook and Ricky Peters are nominees in Instrumental Music. Valerie Brown is a Dramatics Nominee and Dawn Jarvis is nominated for her artistic ability. Should these students be chosen, they will attend a six week educational experience at Salem College in Winston Salem this summer.

Class of '77 Gives Seniors A Fantasyland Prom

Rainbows and starry ceilings met the eyes of juniors and seniors as they entered the Shrine Club on May 22, 1976 for the Junior-Senior Prom. Students, attired in long dresses and tuxedos, danced to the rhythms of "Persuasions."

Northwest Senior High Commencement Exercises were held June 3 in the War Memorial Auditorium. As the band performed "Pomp and Circumstance," the Junior Marshals ushered the anxious seniors down the aisles to their seats. The Junior Marshals are Teresa Smith and Dinita James — co-chiefs; Bab Keys, Susan Matthews, Eugene Rayle, Jo Robinson, Gretchen Simpson and Sonja Winfree.

Junior Marshals are chosen at the end of their junior year on the basis of their previous grades. Above: Teresa Smith, Eugene Rayle and Bab Keys prepare for the senior's final exit. Following the ceremonies, the Marshals lead the former seniors to receive congratulations from their families and friends.

A Fresh Start for Drama

To begin their new start, the dramatists presented "Perils of Priscilla" and "Switched at the Crossroads" in conjunction with the International Dinner. A spring production ended the acting year.

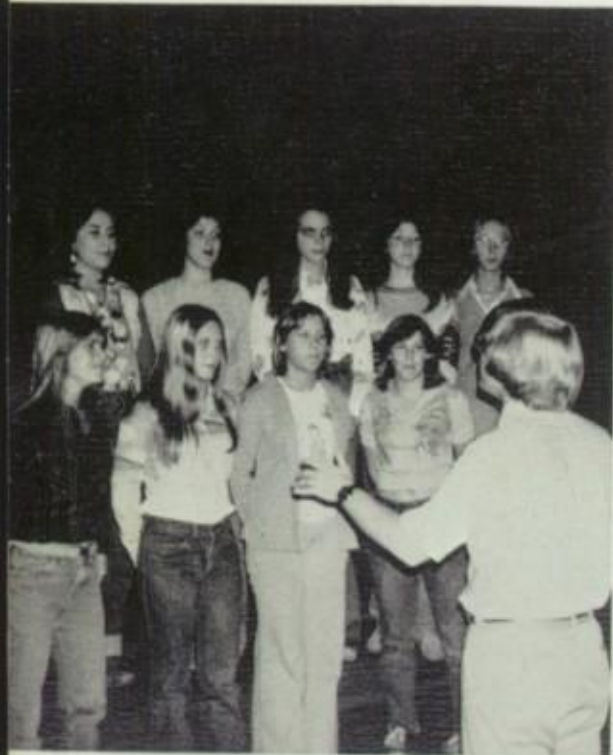

Drama students must be enthusiastic about their performances during rehearsal as well as on the live stage. Opposite page: Cyndi Cook, Andrea Jessup, and Sherry Haynes rehearse lines. Top Right: "A Villian Who Is Not A Villian," is played by David Vernon as Sebastian Spitzmiller, who courts Teresa Farrington as Mercy Doobee, in "Switched At The Crossroads." Middle right: Ann Sheehy and Amy Van Geluwe are captured while "being a tree." David Knox, bottom left, and Valerie Brown, bottom right are caught by a photographer during their performance in "Perils of Priscilla."

Besides winning fifty dollars in the Christmas Contest at Carolina Circle Mall, the Northwest Choral Department entered all Choruses in the State Festival on March 5, 1977. For fellow Viking students, they presented Fall, Christmas, Spring, and Pops Concerts.

Individual standouts include Marlene Williamson, Kim Neal, Karen Hilton, Pam Alley, and David Vernon, who were selected to attend a two day Choral Clinic at Mars Hill College, N.C.

Mr. Billings Enjoys 15th Year at Northwest

At the end of this year, Mr. Billings will have served as a high school principal for 23 years. The last 15 have been spent at Northwest where he has found that "lifestyles have changed but the individual student has not." Mr. Billings feels that he can honestly boast to say he has received more respect than any other principal in the state and possibly in the nation. He bases this on first-hand experiences with the accreditation of other schools.

Mr. Billings works hard to keep Northwest high in the ratings. Above: Mr. Billings occasionally takes a break to enjoy his pipe. Right: Mr. Billings and Mrs. Mabe discuss school affairs.

The assistant principal offices have been relocated on separate ends of the building. Mr. Rose's office is in the former yearbook room on the back hall. Miss Broad's location is in the main office area.

New Assistant Principals Direct Student Activities

This year for the first time Northwest has two assistant principals. Mr. Rose and Miss Broad share the responsibilities of school functions. Their duties include patrolling the halls, smoking area, bathrooms, all school buildings and checking lockers. One of the two must also be present for all athletic and after school events.

Mr. A.J. Rose came from Northeast to join the Northwest Vikings. He holds the title of Athletic Director in addition to his other duties. The Athletic Director schedules the athletic events for all school teams, supervises team transportation and the concession stand.

Miss Broad is Northwest's first female assistant principal. Upon returning to Northwest this year, she found herself facing new duties as an assistant principal. Her major duty is being in charge of bus drivers, schedules, upkeep and the handling of all bus-related complaints. She also issues books at the beginning of each year.

Students Keep Front Office Busy

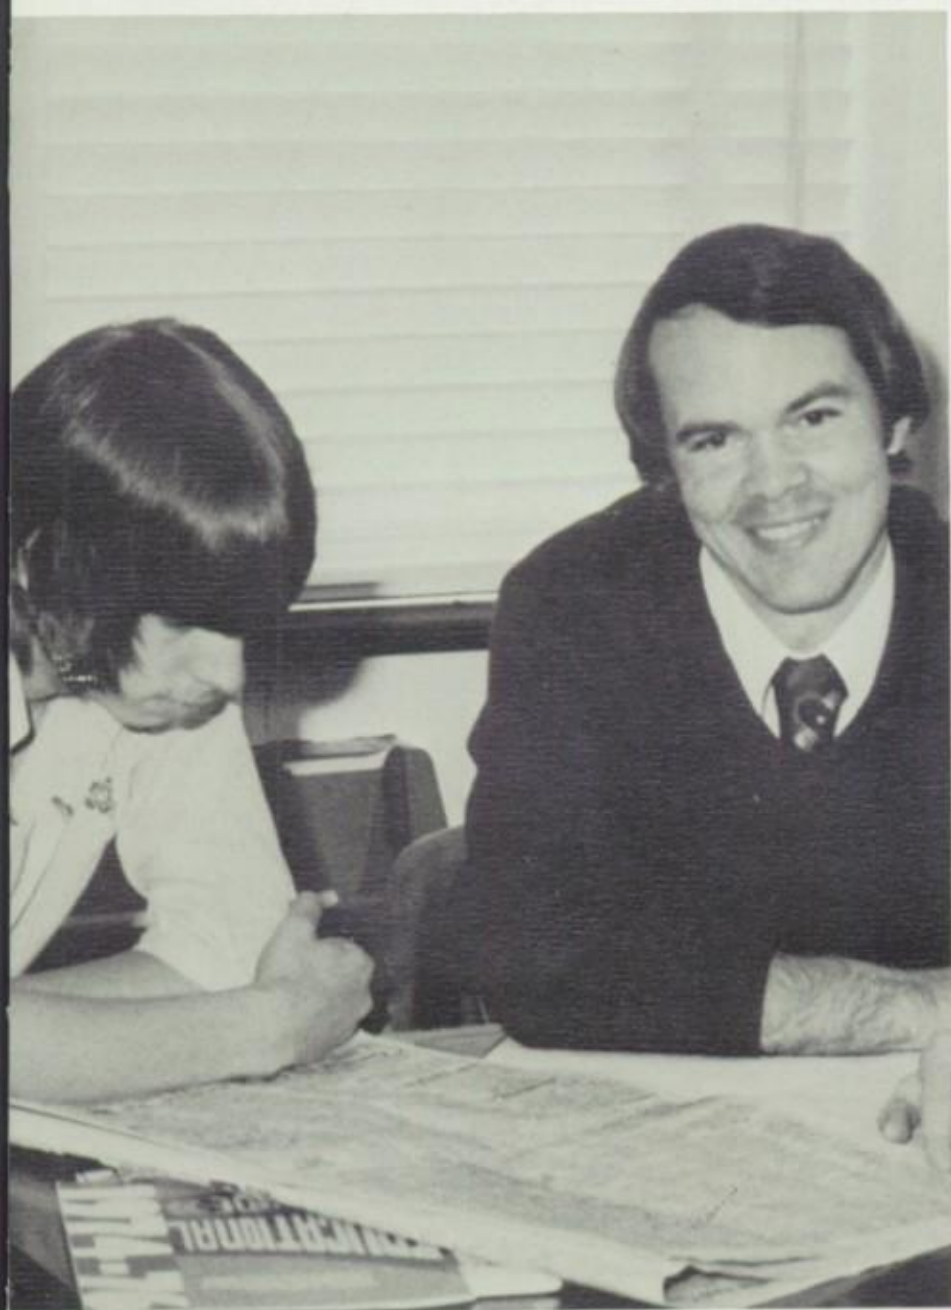

Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Welker together share the job of running the front office smoothly. Mrs. Nelson is the secretary, and Mrs. Welker is secretary-treasurer. Making announcements, monitoring the phone, passing out late slips, doctoring ailing students, and carrying on all school correspondence keep our secretaries busy.

Guidance Solves Student Woes

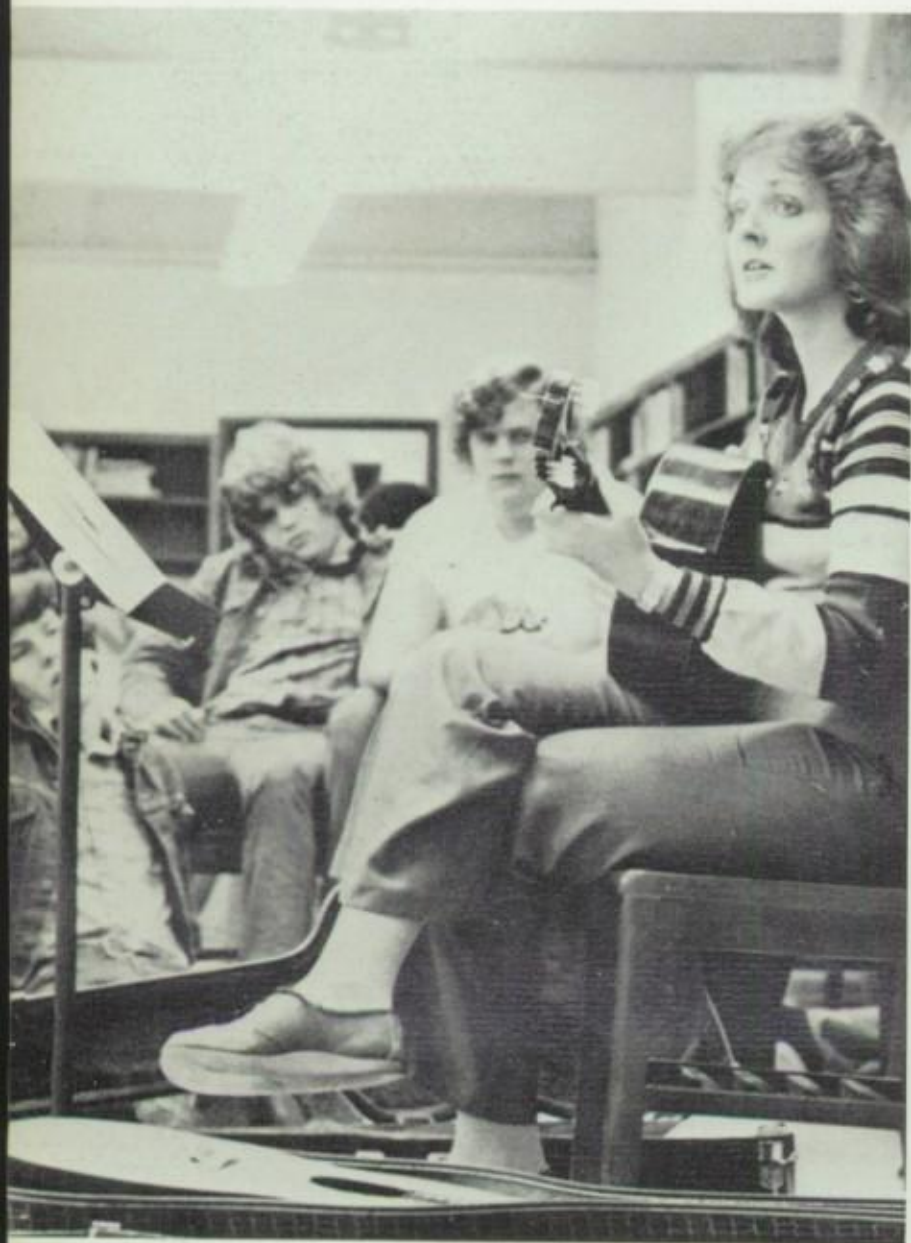

Northwest has 726 students and two full-time guidance counselors, Mrs. Simpson and Mr. Wetmore. These counselors spend time with students on problems, needs, and concerns as they arise. A large percentage of the counselors' time is devoted to individual counseling: personal, social educational, and vocational. The counselors have a conference with each senior every year and hold many additional conferences at the request of parents, teachers, principals, and the students themselves.

Library Hosts Balladeer

Escaping from English classes for a day, students enjoyed the tunes of a guest balladeer, Gail George. She sang contemporary and folk ballads. Below: Ms. George entertains students with her music.

Reference questions from students are continually being answered by our two librarians, Mrs. Klem and Mrs. Comer. Mrs. Klem, top right, is the head librarian and oversees the purchasing of books and magazines. Mrs. Comer is the library aid, and acts as a secretarial assistant. Bottom Right: Mrs. Comer shows assistants the proper way to stamp a book.

Preparing and serving lunches is the main objective of the cafeteria staff. The lunchroom workers are: Back row, Mary Francis, Verda Solomon, Leabie Maberson, Carrie Williams, and Francis Burkett. Front row, Lola Pegram, Madie Tuttle, Joann Edwards, and Francis Young.

Teachers Concentrate on Individualized Instruction

History

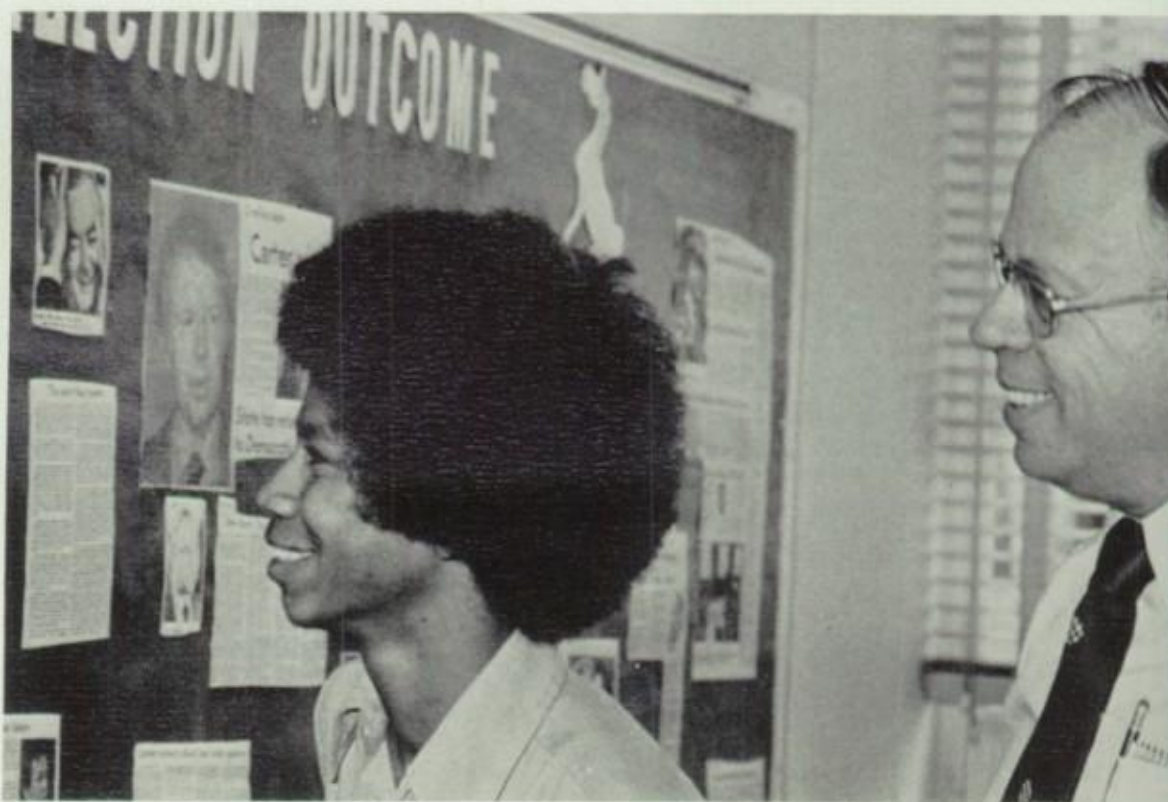

The History Department is headed by Mr. Stanley Godwin with the assistance of Ms. Linda Case. Below, Ms. Case discusses ancient matters of Greece with one of her World Cultures students. Bottom right, Mr. Godwin and Tony Ramsey review the outcome of the November election.

Language, Science

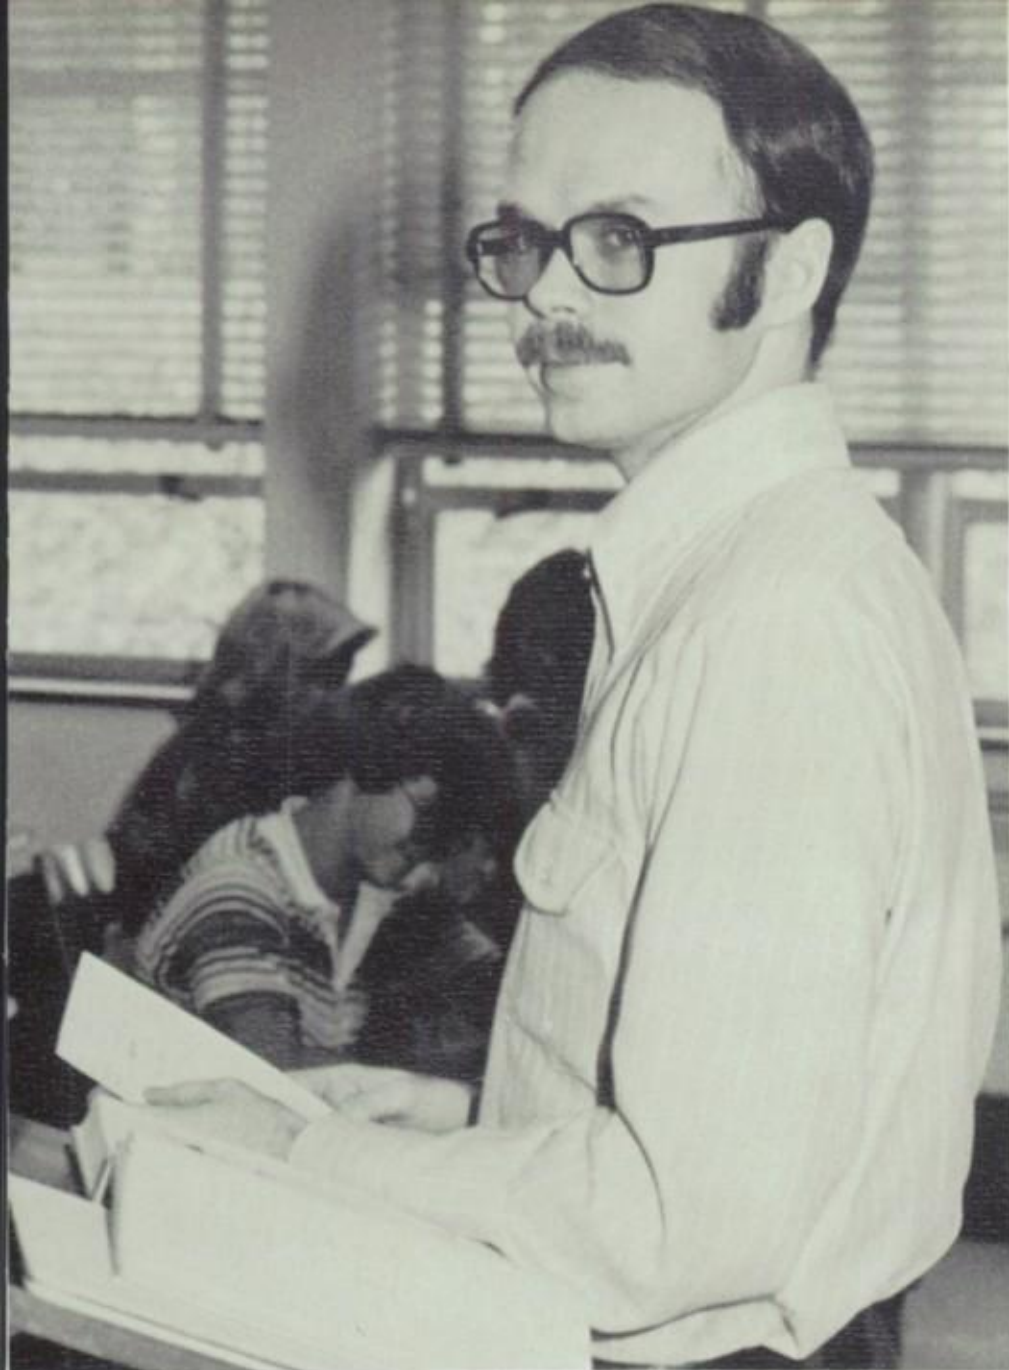

The Northwest Science Department enhances a routine school day. Mr. Frank Calhoun heads our Science Department with the cooperation of Ms. Betty Walker.

The Foreign Language Department, characterized by babbling students, language labs, tapes, and films about France and Spain is led by two bilingual individuals, Mr. Thomas Hardin and Mrs. Therese Robinette.

Business

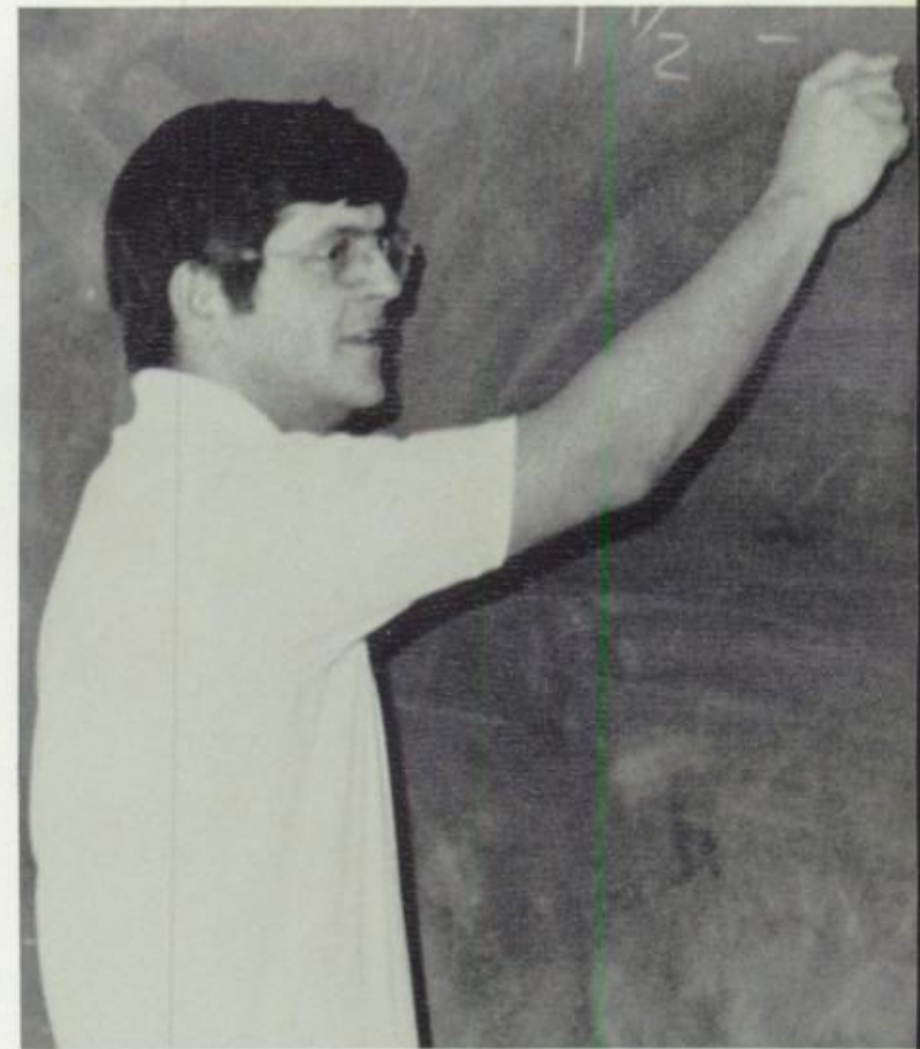

Excellent equipment allows the Business Department to offer a wide variety of business courses to Northwest students. Running smoothly under the supervision of Ms. Betty Everhart, bottom, the department receives beneficial contributions from Ms. Wanda Eller and Ms. Carol Farmer. Top, Ms. Farmer shows future secretaries Dava Paschal, Kim Griffin, and Shelia King, the proper shorthand derivatives. Middle, Ms. Eller types along with one of her classes.

Business and Math Center Around Numbers

Math

With classes ranging from basic fundamentals to advanced math, the Mathematics Department is headed by Ms. Kay Fulp. Top, she instructs Todd Cleary, an Algebra II student. Mrs. Mary Hudson, bottom, gives Dale Smith a sneak preview of the answers. Below, Mr. Bob Yow gives further explanations about fractions.

Classes Help Prepare For Future

Home Economics

The Home Ec. Department offers such courses as Clothing, Homemaking, and Consumer Education. These courses include such activities as meal study, sewing, family living, grooming, and re-upholstering. Ms. Helen Godwin, near right, pauses while reading a recipe. Bottom, left, Ms. Gloria Whitted instructs Evangeline Jessup in proper sewing techniques.

Special Education

Mr. John Evans has the nerve-racking job of teaching all sophmores how to handle a car. The Driver's Ed. teacher is shown left with Mark Teal. Mr. Robert Reynolds, below left, and Ms. May Hopkins, far left, have the job of teaching the exceptional students in Special Education.

Work Study

The Northwest curriculum includes a work-study program which allows students to leave school early, and allows them to hold jobs. ICT advisor, Mr. Williams, below right, reviews material with Floyd Duncan. Mr. Faber Bowman is in charge of DECA and attendance. Below left, he passes out excuses.

Mr. Carl Nelson advises carpentry students Tim Pitts and Gary Schick, above left. Above right, Mr. Jimmy Stuckey and Joe Ray Hawkins discuss the upcoming drafting contests. Mr. Julian Morehouse, who specializes in Aviation and Electronics, is pictured with equipment, below left. While giving instructions to bricklaying students Frankie James, Steve Walker, and Keith Baker, Mr. Wilbert Mitchener, with hard-hat on head, takes a break to smile for the photographer.

Vocational Courses Add Variety

From working in the greenhouse, fixing podiums, and upkeeping the activity buses, to designing and drawing houses, flying airplanes, and learning brick designs, the Northwest Vocational courses offer a variety of fields of study to interested students.

Students Enjoy A Taste of The Arts

Ms. Sylvia Wright provides a variety of activities including drawing, painting, printmaking, sculpture, crafts, commercial art, and art history. Taking in extra duties, much of her free time is spent as advisor to the Yearbook Staff. Mr. Tommy Smith spends alot of his own time with the band students, and his efforts pay off in their fine performances. Mr. Randall Humphrey, a former Northwest student, brings a new taste of drama to the school. Taking time to give individual instruction to all, his drama students have high regards for his knowledge and ideas. Mr. Bruce Shafferman heads the choral department and is responsible for its many entertaining programs.

Coaches Emphasize Athletics

All four P.E. teachers assume the role of after school coaches. Ms. Vicky Valand is solely responsible for all girl's sports. New at this school, she has fit in well and been rewarded with favorable results. Football and Track Coach Bob Kime is always on the look-out for football and track prospects. Coach Jerry Readinger gets a supreme effort from the Wrestlers, and the numerous victories reflect their hard work. Mr. Sandy Gann coaches varsity basketball, cross country, and baseball. His labors have been rewarded with many successful seasons.

A comic strip in your yearbook?

This is our ad.
Maybe it's funny; maybe it's corny.
But at least it's different.
Because we think we're a different kind of Company.
Burlington is Number One in textiles and related products.
And high school graduates are the kind of people we need to keep us on top.

If you're looking for a job,
look us up.
If you're going on to college,
remember our name.
Burlington.

say, "Congratulations, Seniors"

Cone fabrics have stood for freedom from the start...since 1895, when Americans started living in them.

One of our early offerings was Cone deeptone denim. And we soon became the leading manufacturer of this famous fabric.

Next came corduroy. Once the fabric of kings, it became just as popular among Americans of all ages.

But Cone didn't stop there. In fact, denim and corduroy are just two of the many fabrics that have won acclaim for Cone Mills in its 81 year history.

Today, with 22 modern plants, Cone creates a whole line of quality fabrics for casualwear, sportswear, sleepwear, uniforms and career apparel. Fabrics for home-decorating and home-sewing—even polyurethane foam—are now a part of the Cone family of products.

The almost 14,500 employees of Cone Mills are proud of their part in creating the basic fabrics that are the backbone of American casual fashion...and proud of the freedom each fabric gives you.

Cone
